

§ 1903.1

AUTHORITY: Sec. 401, Intelligence Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 1985 (50 U.S.C. 403o).

SOURCE: 50 FR 19154, May 6, 1985, unless otherwise noted.

§ 1903.1 Applicability.

These regulations apply to all property under the charge and control of the Security Protective Service of the Central Intelligence Agency and to all persons entering in or on such property (hereinafter referred to as protected property). Employees of the Central Intelligence Agency and any other persons entering upon protected property shall be subject to these regulations.

§ 1903.2 Control of activities on protected property.

Persons in and on protected property shall at all times comply with official signs of a prohibitory, regulatory, or directory nature and with the direction of Security Protective Officers and any other duly authorized personnel.

§ 1903.3 Restrictions on admission to protected property.

Access to protected property shall be restricted to ensure the orderly and secure conduct of Agency business. Admission to protected property will be restricted to employees and other persons with proper authorization who shall, when requested, display government or other identifying credentials to the Security Protective Officers or other duly authorized personnel when entering, leaving, or while on the property.

§ 1903.4 Control of vehicles on protected property.

Drivers of all vehicles entering or while on protected property shall comply with the signals and directions of Security Protective Officers or other duly authorized personnel and any posted traffic instructions. The blocking of entrances, driveways, walks, loading platforms, or fire hydrants on protected property is prohibited. Driving a non-emergency vehicle above the prescribed speed limit is prohibited. All vehicles shall be driven in a safe and careful manner at all times.

32 CFR Ch. XIX (7-1-98 Edition)

§ 1903.5 Enforcement of parking regulations.

For reasons of security, parking regulations shall be strictly enforced. Except with proper authorization, parking on protected property is not allowed without a permit. Parking without a permit or other authorization, parking in unauthorized locations or in locations reserved for other persons, or parking contrary to the direction of posted signs is prohibited. Vehicles parked in violation, where warning signs are posted, shall be subject to removal at the owner's risk, which shall be in addition to any penalties assessed pursuant to § 1903.19. The Agency assumes no responsibility for the payment of any fees or costs related to such removal which may be charged to the owner of the vehicle by the towing organization. This paragraph may be supplemented from time to time with the approval of the CIA Director of Security by the issuance and posting of such specific traffic directives as may be required, and when so issued and posted such directives shall have the same force and effect as if made a part hereof. Proof that a vehicle was parked in violation of these regulations or directives may be taken as prima facie evidence that the registered owner was responsible for the violation.

§ 1903.6 Security inspection.

Any personal property, including but not limited to any packages, briefcases, containers or vehicles brought into, while on, or being removed from protected property are subject to inspection. A search of a person may accompany an investigative stop or an arrest.

§ 1903.7 Prohibition on weapons and explosives.

No persons entering or while on protected property shall carry or possess, either openly or concealed, firearms, other dangerous or deadly weapons, explosives, or items intended to be used to fabricate an explosive or incendiary device, except as authorized by the CIA Director of Security or his designee at each Agency facility.
